2025 marks 31 years since the release of his debut album, a milestone that underscores his longevity, consistency, and impact on Hawaii's music scene.

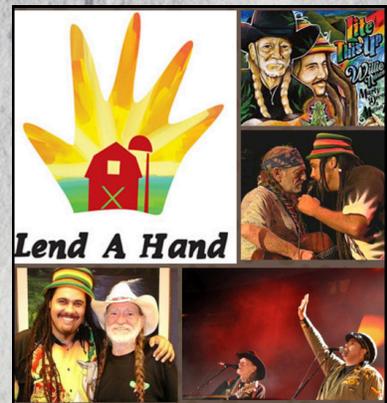

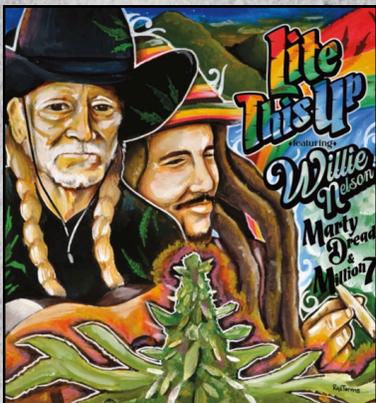

Marty Dread is one of Hawaii's most seasoned and widely traveled reggae artists, performing across the Hawaiian Islands and around the world. He has released 21 albums on his independent label, Five Corners Music.

Over the course of his career, Marty has performed at prestigious venues including the White House in Washington, D.C., Moscow's Red Square, and the historic Cotton Club in Harlem.

Marty Dread's festival appearances include Reggae on the River, Farm Aid, Reggae on the Rocks, Sierra Nevada World Music Festival, and more.

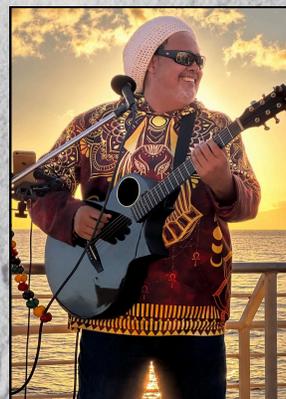

Marty Dread toured as an opening act for Willie Nelson and joined Nelson on stage at multiple Farm Aid concerts and the legendary 4th of July Picnic.

Marty's studio collaborations span an impressive roster, including Willie Nelson, Inner Circle, Kris Kristofferson, Anthony B, Michael McDonald, Junior Reid, Mikey Dread, Fiji, Irie Love, Pato Banton, Sly & Robbie, Mad Professor, Tippa Irie, Toots Hibbert, O-shen, Particle Kid, Common Sense, Lukas Nelson, and Bluetech.

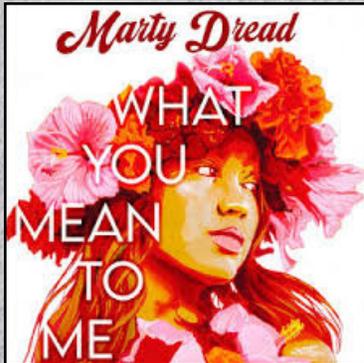

In addition to extensive touring throughout the United States, Marty has performed internationally in Brazil, Tahiti, Canada, Thailand, Guam, Saipan, and China. He is also the only Hawaii artist to perform at major Caribbean reggae festivals, including events in Barbados and Jamaica.

You can regularly catch Marty Dread performing live throughout Maui and the Hawaiian Islands, often appearing in multiple locations in a single day.
